

Aleksandar Stojkov, Manager, Finance in Motion

Aleksandar Stojkov is Manager at Finance in Motion and head of the office in Belgrade, Serbia. He is a member of the investment team, managing portfolio and relationships with financial institutions in the country, as well as project sponsors and government officials. He supports financial institutions in developing green loan products and ensures efficient utilization of funds and outreach to end-borrowers. He has a B.A. degree in international economic development from the Denison University, USA.