

Stanislava Zadavec Capriolo is, since July 2017 Director of the Bank Association of Slovenia and a Member of Executive Board of European Banking Federation. In the period of April 2016 to July 2017 she was Strategic Adviser to the Governor of the Bank of Slovenia and Chief Compliance Officer. From April 2010 to April 2016 she was Vice Governor of the Bank of Slovenia, which is responsible authority also for banking supervision and financial stability. She was a Member of SSM ECB Supervisory Board, nonvoting Member of ESRB, Member of National Systemic Risk Board, Member of ECB Ethics Framework TF and member of EBA. From 2014 to 2017 she was also Program Board Member of European Supervisor Education Initiative

She is former Director General of Treasury of the Ministry of Finance (2005 – 2009), from 1998 to 2005 she was State Undersecretary at the Ministry of Finance, responsible for the state debt management, liquidity management and state guarantees. During the period of 2003 to 2009 she was also a Member of EFC T-Bills and Bonds Working Group. She also has short term working experience in the World Bank. She started her career in 1989 in the Central Bank of the Republic of Slovenia.

She was also a member (and Chair) of the Supervisory Board of the Slovenian Export and Development Bank and member of Supervisory Board (and Chair) of Nova Ljubljanska Banka, member of different national governmental and other strategic or policy making working bodies as well as member of an expert group on public finance, participating in different forms of consultancy activities in the CEE and North Africa region (including for Regional Center for Excellence in Finance and IMF).

She holds a Master degree in International Affairs (Economic Policy Management), Columbia University, New York and Bachelor degree in Law, Ljubljana University