Gergely Fábián, Executive Director, National Bank of Hungary and CEO of Budapest Institute of Banking

Since September 2017, he has been heading the Executive Directorate of Financial System Analysis and Statistics.

Gergely is Chief Executive Officer of the Budapest Institute of Banking (BIB) Private Limited Company since 2017, the year of its foundation. His goal is to support the competitiveness of the banking system and SME sector with digital transformation and sustainability education in addition to traditional risk management and compliance courses through the operation of the training institute.

Since March 2015, until his appointment as Executive Director, he had been functioning as Director of the Financial System Analysis Division.

In September 2009, after graduating from the University of Maastricht, he started working as an analyst in the Financial Stability Area at the National Bank of Hungary, where he was heading the analytical department as from 2013.

Member of the ESRB (European Systemic Risk Board) Advisory Technical Committee (2015-2016, 2019).

Between June 2016 and June 2017 he functioned as Chairman of the Board of Mark Zrt., entrusted with the reorganization and sale of the company. He has been a member of the Supervisory Board of BISZ Zrt. He acted as Vice President of LITT (Real Estate Market Advisory Board) and now remained its member and was also member of the Digitalization and FinTech Advisory Board earlier.

Within the framework of the EKKV project, Gergely is the author of the 8th, namely the Financial Planning and Financing module that was launched in 2021. The free e-learning program is designed to support companies, businesses in Hungary. Module 8 facilitates the conscious financial planning of companies with a business plan and descriptions of different forms of financing.

In 2021, he received the Sándor Popovics Award, which is a presidential recognition for outstanding activities and achievements related to the tasks of the National Bank of Hungary, on the Lamfalussy conference.