

Mr Ben Lyon: Director Banking and Finance & Head of ATTF Services, at the House of Training, Luxembourg.

Ben is both the Director of Banking and Finance programmes and the Head of ATTF Services at the House of Training in Luxembourg. As Head of ATTF services, he is responsible for the delivery of training projects and assistance programmes with the funding of the Luxembourg Government to selected ATTF partner countries. He has over 25 years of financial services experience and his skills include the creation and delivery of training, investment funds, customer service, people & project management and professional coaching.

Prior to the creation of the House of Training in 2016, Ben worked for 6 years with the Luxembourg Banking Training Institute of the Luxembourg Banking Association (“IFBL”). He has worked within the fund industry as the Head of Customer Support for RBC Dexia, was Operations Manager and Customer Service Manager at Franklin Templeton, was a Business Consultant for IBM and held various positions of responsibility at Fleming Asset Management (now part of JP Morgan).

Ben speaks English, French, German and Luxembourgish and holds a degree in International Management from the University of Manchester, Institute of Science and Technology.