

Rui Correia is currently Executive Director and Chair of Board of Education at ACI Financial Markets Association, a Certified Trainer in financial markets and holder of a Masters in Finance. Since 2014, and after spending 25 years in trading rooms for large financial institutions (in London, Madrid and Lisbon), Rui decided to fully concentrate on sharing his knowledge and experience towards the enhancement of ethical and professional standards of participants in financial markets.”